The curtain rises on our leading lady Mrs. Grace Murdoch

A gifted person and a brilliant teacher, she is known for her kindness, her sense of humor, and her love for children. She is admired by everyone for her dedication and her hard work. Throughout her fourteen years at St. Mary's, she has touched young minds and inspired many girls. She has gained the respect of those she teaches, as well as those with whom she works. As head of the math department, she coordinates classes for girls of all ages. From seventh grade math and pre-algebra to calculus, students adore her. Therefore, it is with great affection and pride that we, the 1980 Carillon staff, dedicate our book to Mrs. Grace Murdoch.

The Premiere — opening up to those around us: we are taking the first step in the play of life.

We are a part of a program, carrying out a desired course. We see ourselves as actors on the world's stage.

Class of 1980

We are all on a stage. The spotlight shines on each of us. We are growing together, carrying out our roles.

We realize that by reaching out to each other, appreciating, and loving, we are setting the scene that will influence our daily plot.

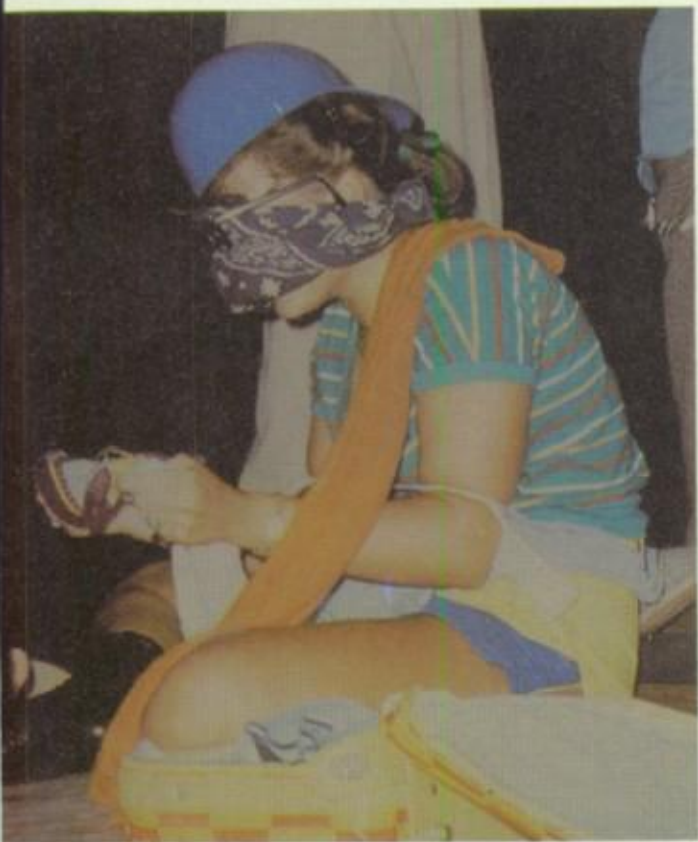

Our action is an exertion of energy, a process of doing, working, and putting forth effort to accomplish the goals we have set.

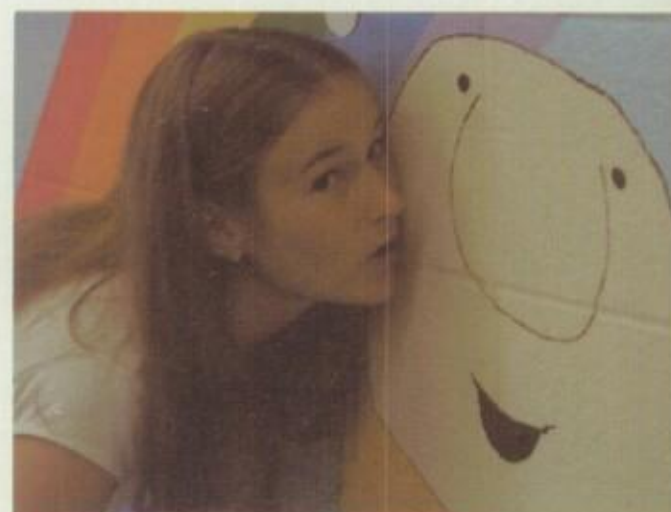

Producing a series of events, a result of our efforts, we become unified, bringing all facets of our lives together.

Behind the scenes we are taught to support, to follow, and to respect.

We reach the finale. Together we have created fond thoughts and precious memories of days that will soon pass. MMP

In the Spotlight

Karen Dana Anderton

I want to travel as far as I can go
I want to reach the joy that's in my soul
And change the limitations
that I know;
And feel my mind and spirit
grow;
I want to live, exist, "to be"
And hear the truths inside of me.

Doris Warshay

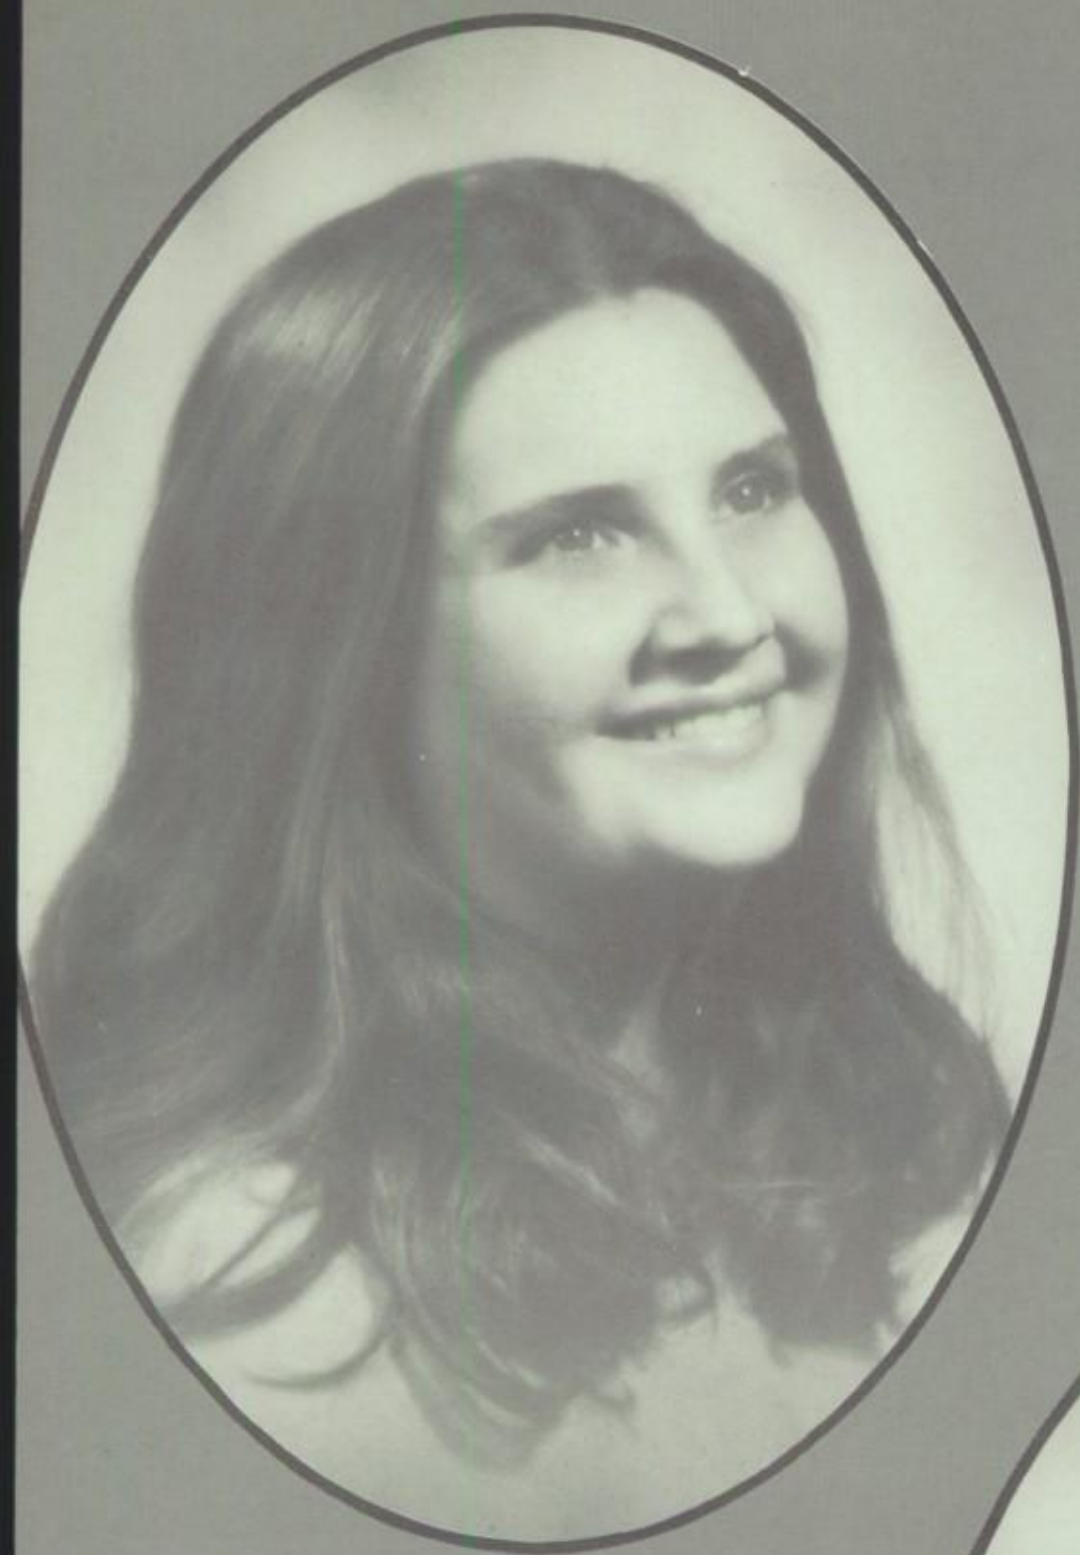

Melissa Diana Marian
La Trobe-Bateman

I cannot rest from travel; I will drink
Life to the lees. All times I have enjoyed
Greatly, have suffered greatly,
both with those
That loved me, and alone.

Alfred Lord Tennyson

Elisa Ann Brock

One ought,
Everyday at least,
To hear a little song,
Read a good poem,
See a fine picture,
And, if it were possible,
To speak a few
Reasonable words.

— Goethe

To suffer woes which Hope thinks infinite;
To forgive wrongs darker than death or night;
To defy Power, which seems omnipotent;
To love, and bear; to hope till Hope creates
From its own wreck the thing that contemplates;
This is alone Life, Joy, Empire, and Victory.

Mirror in the sky

Love never ends; as for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away . . . So faith, hope, love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Twelve Year Club

Back: S. Mansberg, A. Clifton, S. McLaughlin, J. Burrow, D. Gioia, M. Pitts, K. Buckman, C. Peyton, M. Francis. Front: A. Eddings, S. McCaull, C. Burr.

So this is what it's like
To be a senior.

The long awaited dream,
The privileges,
The authority,

Everything so perfect and
Ideal has come.

Unforeseen was the responsibility,
The decisions, the patience
Laced with the care and confidence
We began to share.

We no longer saw each other's shortcomings,
We only saw our talents;
Our accomplishments.

We arrive now
At the birth of a new life
And like swallows
Fly into the winds of change;

Like them we shall come upon
New challenges
New ideas
But shall gain strength
From our common origin

Our unconscious ties
To brave the storm
And reach the goals.

Setting the Scene

Spring '79

Spring was a time for bringing the old year to a close, and preparing for a bright, new school year. The M-Club awards honored those who had been outstanding athletes, and Student Council elections pointed out the girls who would be this year's leaders. St. Mary's was visited by interesting speakers during Religious Emphasis week. The year was closing on a glorious note when St. Mary's girls displayed their talents in Fine Arts Day, and their ingenuity at the Science Fair.

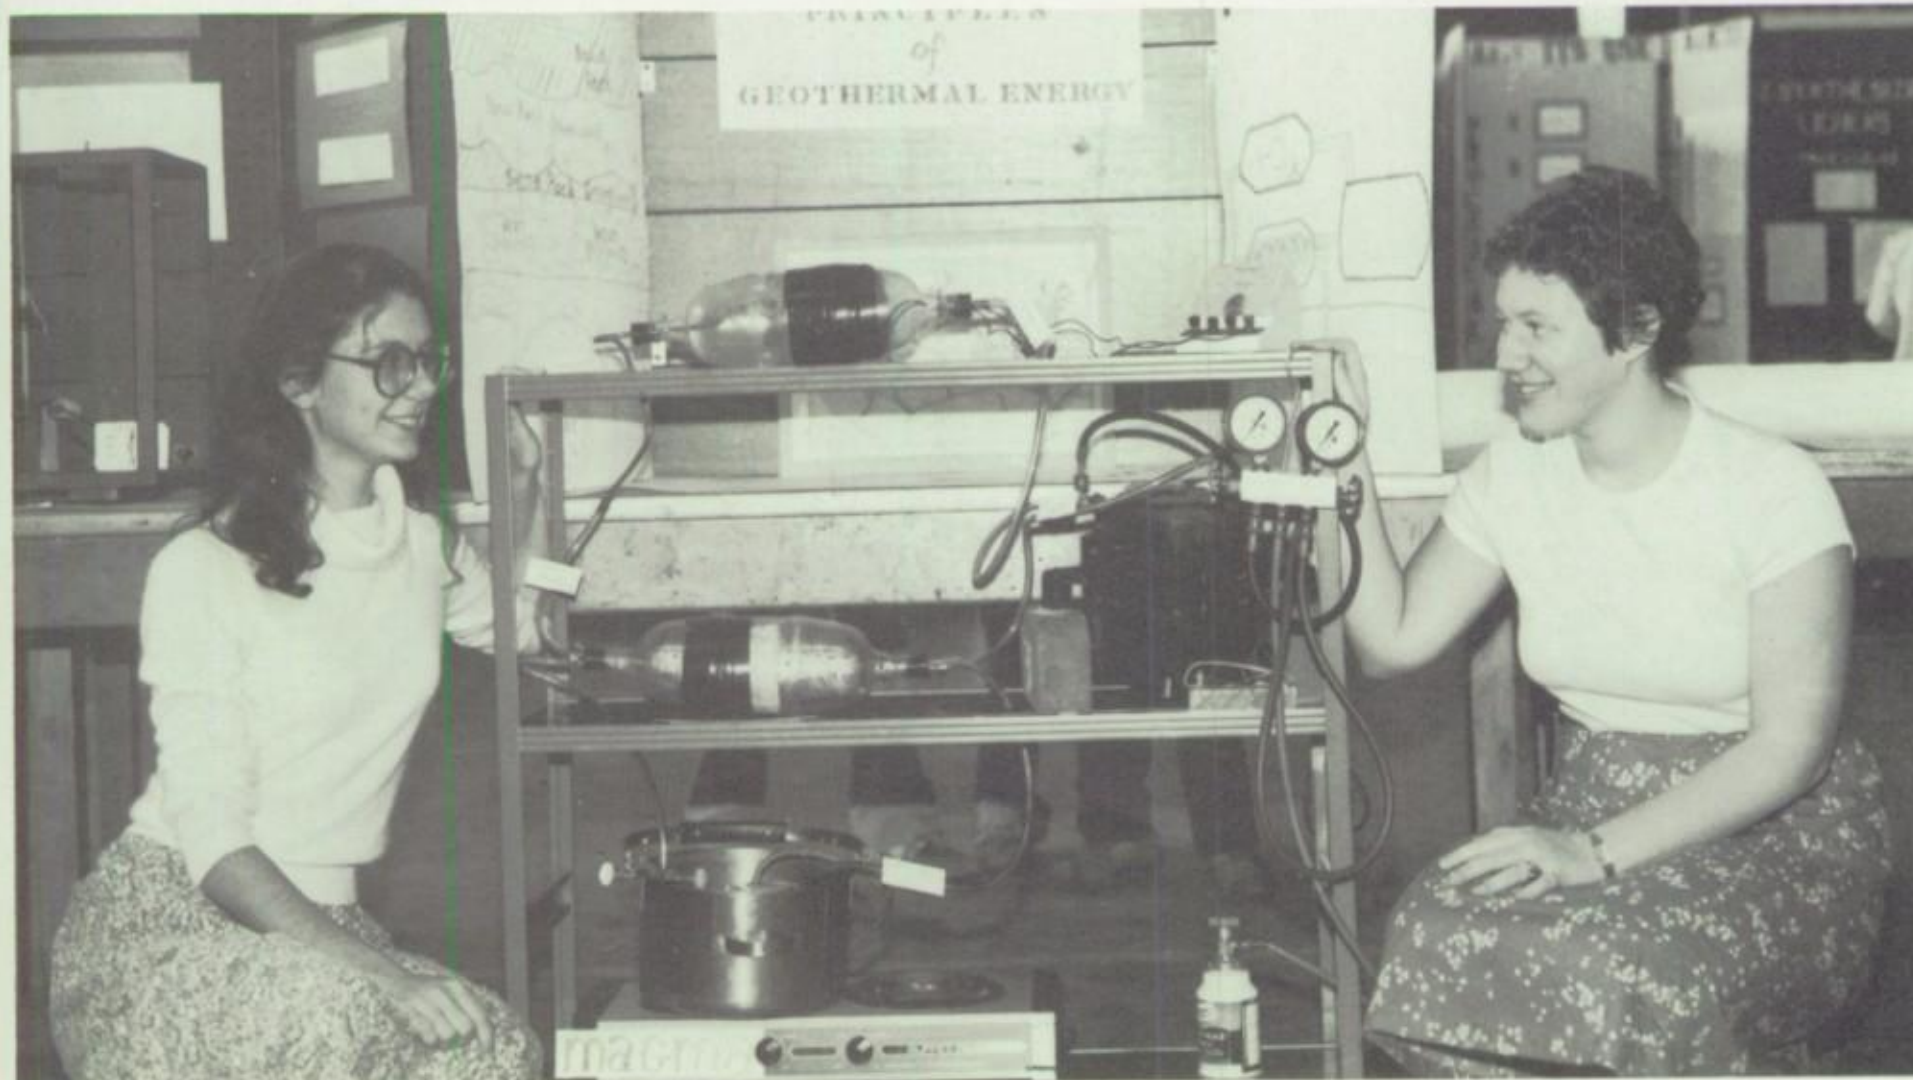

1. B. Garrett's smile shows her joy over receiving her trophy. 2. L. Page receives the most improved award for the volleyball team. 3. M. Bateman's poster, among the many original ones created during S.C. elections. 4. Miss Reiner's protégé, J. Thurman, belts out a song on Fine Arts Day.

1. A guest speaker for Religious Emphasis Week explains the commitments for life. 2. The masses descend upon C. Peyton at the announcement of her victory. 3. Thank you, Stella, for 25 years of devoted service. 4. The seniors leave their mark. 5. Melanie and Corinne display their fascination with geothermal energy at the Science Fair.

Class Day is a time to look back on what has happened during the past school year. Awards are given to the most outstanding students and Best All Around athletes. The Junior Class annual farewell song to the Seniors is important to the hard-working girls who have completed their final year at St. Mary's.

The friends and parents of the Graduating Class of 1979 enjoyed a beautiful and touching ceremony. Faced with the fear of losing the security of their senior class, the girls apprehensively but proudly graduated at St. John's Episcopal Church. Gina Barron, President of the Senior Class, gave the opening address, followed by the speeches of the Salutatorian and Valedictorian. Various awards were given to the most outstanding girls in their class. The Teacher of the Year Award was given to Sylvia Adams, and the Alumnae Award was presented to Barbara Mansberg for outstanding service.

St. Mary's is very fortunate to have such an exciting summer program, part of which is the St. Mary's Day Camp. The camp is directed by Mrs. John McCracken. The program provides activities such as tennis, swimming, and nature study for young girls. The entire program for older boys and girls is directed by Mrs. Anne Fisher. It offers a variety of summer fun including tennis, crafts, photography, sewing, and typing. Academic enrichment is also incorporated within the program.

Act I: The Opening Scene

The enthusiasm of a great summer carried over into Derby Day, Pep Club inductions, and other annual fall events. Guitarist Mitchell Korn, a paramedic squad, and the talented members of Ballet South were a few of the awesome assemblies that the Student Council brought to the student body during the first two months of school. At the end of September, the invasion of St. Mary's by various barnyard animals got Freshman Initiation off to an unusual but exciting start. To enliven the already brisk month of October, the Student Council sponsored a successful Halloween Bazaar that provided fun for all.

Top Right: M. Korn displayed his talent in playing his 12-string guitar for a Student Council assembly. Middle Left: K. O'Shields transforms a little girl into a cat at the Halloween Bazaar. Center: A. Carter as a Freshman cow smiles sweetly despite the fly on her nose. Middle Right: At the Halloween Bazaar, the hidden beauty of A. Gross and Mrs. Fisher really shines through. Bottom Right: At this point during Freshman Initiation, these freshmen are obviously tired of singing, "We Love You, Seniors." Bottom Left: N. Carlson and K. Smith renewed their studies with the seriousness typical of St. Mary's students.

Upper Left: K. Buckman informs the students about the requirements for being inducted into the Beta Club. Upper Right: The little model questions L. Williams' ability to draw his portrait. Middle Left: "Why me?" thinks Tommy Hull. Middle Right: "MINE!" Bottom: The Seniors, intrigued by General Hospital, are shocked at the news that Rick is really the father of Monica's child.

As the year progressed, students fell into the usual routine of study. The monotony, however, was broken by honorary inductions, enthusiastic models, and skilled entertainers. The lower and middle schools were not left out of the action. Along with new events was the traditional and always successful fifth-grade father-daughter dinner. The trustees and faculty, both important parts of St. Mary's life, thoroughly enjoyed their annual dinner. The ingenious Student Council sponsored a new idea for Thanksgiving — a Turkey Hunt.

The middle school began to form some ideas about future ambitions on "Career Day". Senior and seventh grade performers in the production of "Tuesday Night Wild" surprised the student body with their hidden talents, and seniors took another step in their slow regression to childhood on "Pajama Day". A wonderful Sundae Monday ended the November activities as our thoughts turned towards Christmas. To spread Christmas cheer throughout the school, various classes and organizations decorated doors. In the true Christmas spirit, each class gave a gift of carols to each other.

Top Left: A. Clifton sings of her new found friendship. Top Right: On Career Day, a group of fifth graders show what they hope an SMS education will prepare them to be. Center Right: Barry Fuller, during an assembly in chapel, becomes Ebenezer Scrooge before our very eyes. Center Left: M. Bourland hopes to have a soft landing. Bottom: In a reflective moment, Mr. Leech relates Stella's many contributions to the school as she prepares to retire after 25 years.

The Beginning of the Final Act

St. Mary's girls came back to school in January full of exciting stories of Christmas and New Year's Eve. Some singers from Tulane University and other great assemblies enlivened the routine of classes. A group of actors, both hearing and deaf, performed "Show of Hands", a series of pantomime skits demonstrating the sign language alphabet. With the months of January and February came one of the best parts of winter, snow, and that brought needed holidays that gave students a chance to catch up on their sleep and schoolwork. Every girl at the Father-Daughter Dance was able to see a new side of her father, and the event was a tremendous success.

The Production

Student Council

The Upper School Student Council started working hard early this summer when President Jamie Feild went to a Leadership Training Conference in Denver. She came back with many ideas and spiced up some traditional projects, such as the Halloween Carnival, Derby Day, and other holiday celebrations. Through various projects, including a paper drive, activities with MUS, and a skating party, the Student Council was able to accomplish its main goal, to bring the students closer together.

The Middle School Student Council, led by President Elizabeth Harvey, is an enthusiastic group which promotes spirit within the 4th, 5th, and 6th grades. They worked hard in the Halloween Carnival, collecting Campbell Soup labels, and operating their own Book Store.

Choir

The St. Mary's Choir, under the leadership of Miss Reiners and the president, Alex Eddings, provides music for the Christmas season and several chapel services. This year they will go on tour to other parts of the state. St. Mary's is proud of their fine choir.

Instrumental Music

This year the band and string ensemble worked hard to form a St. Mary's orchestra. Consisting of students in all grades plus some from other schools, the groups have worked hard to present concerts for the school's enjoyment. Through Mrs. Taylor's and Mrs. Hillis' efforts, they have developed another facet of school life.

Back Row: S. Frazier, A. Taylor, C. Cape, K. Curtis, J. Kirkpatrick, G. Hillis. Front Row: L. Langford, E. Owen, K. Haggitt, F. Menzer, E. Cloar, F. Calaway.

Dance and Suzuki

The Middle School Dance Group, under Mrs. Rooke's supervision, practice after school preparing for the May Festival. Some students in the Lower School who take either private or group violin lessons are taught the Suzuki Method. These activities enrich the younger students' school life.

Chess Club

The Chess Club, under the leadership of President Kathi Welch, helps SMS students to master this intellectually demanding game. They meet to have ladder tournaments, and the winners compete locally. Within a year, girls who have never played chess become proficient in this game of strategic maneuvers.

Behind the Scenes

Headmaster: The Rev. David Leech

The dedication and loyalty of Mr. Leech has inspired St. Mary's students to make use of all the opportunities that they are given at St. Mary's. Under his leadership, St. Mary's has become a well-known school with a very high reputation in academic achievements. We are proud to have Mr. Leech as our headmaster.

Dean of Girls: Miss Virginia Pretti

Miss Virginia Pretti became our new dean in 1979. Through her various innovations, Miss Pretti has made St. Mary's a well-rounded school. Her enthusiasm and never ending energy can be seen in all aspects of life at St. Mary's.

Letter From the Editor

Dear Friends,

It has been my privilege during the past year to work with some of the most responsible and diligent girls at St. Mary's. Together my staff and I have spent many hours trying to capture precious moments we have all shared, in an effort to preserve them. Without these hard-working girls there would be no 1980 Carillon.

As editor this year, I have had the opportunity to get to know many special people, and I am sincerely grateful to them. I would like to thank Mr. Leech and Miss Pretti for their help and cooperation, Mrs. Leonard, my faithful and devoted advisor, for her constant support, and Alice Gross and Mr. Tanner for their photography. I also owe a great deal of thanks to Clinton Doby, Taylor Publishing Company representative, and especially to my superb staffheads and beloved friends who stood by me. Their tremendous efforts and moral support made this yearbook possible.

I hope our production holds many fond memories for each of you, and that you will always enjoy looking back at it, reminding yourself of special times. Our labors were for you, and I sincerely hope you enjoy our book.

The Curtain Closes

As we near the close of our play, we realize the great influence we have had on each other, and on the plot of our lives together.

This final act finds us looking back on our year at scenes that remind us of precious memories we will carry with us forever.

Each of us has contributed something unique to our production, a special touch that has made the performance of our play at St. Mary's a success.
